

4 STUDY SKILLS Rock climbing

Look at the health club's article about rock climbing.

____/8

Do you want to go climbing?
It's easier than you might think, especially in cities where you can go to activity centres with indoor climbing walls.

There you can learn how to climb and develop the basic skills for climbing. Discover and explore the world of climbing! You'll really enjoy it.

The benefit of indoor climbing is that you get the best exercise possible. Of course indoor climbing is a bit different from outdoor climbing. But it mirrors outdoor climbing without the risks and dangers – and that's the most important thing for you!!

And – once you're familiar with the basic skills – why not try outdoor climbing too? It can be a new challenge for you. But you will have fun and get good exercise – that's for sure!
